4 – 5 p.m.

✓ Erin Esposito & Aimee Whyte, ASADV

“Deaf Community Accountability”

asadv.org

ASADV recently created a “Deaf Community Accountability Wheel,” modified from Jackson & Garvin’s (2003) Community Accountability framework. Examples of how members of this “small” cultural & linguistic group as well as hearing allies can work together to support survivors & hold abusers accountable will be identified & discussed.

✓ Gabe Wright, The Guy’s Project

“I Got Your Back”

theguysproject.org

Gabe will share his story as a Deaf male survivor of rape. He will focus on shattering the silence of sexual violence & the stigmas & taboos surrounding male survivors that prevent many from speaking out. He will also discuss how we as a community can be proactive in the effort of engaging men that enables us to pave the way for male survivors & male allies as supporters together in preventing & intervening with abuse/violence of women, men & children alike.

✓ Patrick Crough, Millstone Justice

“The Serpents Among Us”

millstonejustice.org

Patrick Crough wrote the book, “The Serpents Among Us” from a Police Investigator’s perspective. He will present about some of the threats posed by child predators & will share tips for parents, service providers, & community members regarding how we can protect our children & communities. Autographed books will be available for purchase at the conference.
